Republican Bob Snelling Announces Campaign
For newly-drawn State House Seat 66

Republican Bob Snelling announced Monday that he will be a candidate for State Representative House District 66 to represent Douglas County and portions of Paulding County in the legislature.

Snelling represented Douglas County from 1995 until 2003 as a State Representative. He chose not to run for re-election when the Democratic majority realigned him and Rep. Bill Hembree into the same district.

“Bill Hembree is my friend, and Douglas County is very well served by him. Out of loyalty and friendship to Bill I chose not to run for re-election in 2002. But my passion for public service and my conservative principles are as strong as ever,” said Snelling.

“I’m running because we need more proven conservatives to step forward and lead Georgia,” said Snelling. “Our state legislature needs to start acting once again like the mature, honest institution that Georgians have the right to expect.”
